LA SERIE

Don Higo reúne a sus dos hijos y reparte dos mansiones: a Piña, el exitoso, una mansión nueva y lujosa; a Maracuyá, el humilde, una mansión vieja y abandonada. Todos creen que el favorito es Piña. Pero en el sótano de la mansión olvidada hay un cofre lleno de dinero y una carta, y la mansión nueva esconde un problema que nadie vio.

Pregunta: ¿El papá premió al hijo equivocado... o sabía exactamente lo que hacía?

CAP 1 — Un año · PILOTO — guion aprobado

Don Higo se va un año: mansión de lujo para Piña, terreno baldío con casita para Maracuyá; en un año la propiedad que valga más dinero hereda la empresa. Piña inunda el terreno. El agua revela una trampa en la casita; la llave de Don Higo la abre y sube un brillo dorado.

Cierra con: Piña espía por la ventana: «Disfrútalo, hermanito. Mañana es mío.»

CAP 2 — El cofre · EN ESPERA del piloto

Se abre la trampa: un cofre lleno de oro (primera vez que se ve). Piña quiere quedárselo. Se abre la carta de Don Higo.

Cierra con: (se define en la sala de guion del cap 2)

CAP 3 — Lo que vale una casa · EN ESPERA del piloto

Piña reclama la mitad del dinero. Maracuyá descubre por qué el papá le dio la casa vieja: ahí empezó la familia. Los hermanos chocan.

Cierra con: Don Higo aparece en la puerta de la mansión vieja.

CAP 4 — La última llave · EN ESPERA del piloto

La carta completa: el dinero solo se puede usar si los dos restauran juntos la casa donde nacieron. Piña pierde la mansión nueva y aprende a perder; Maracuyá aprende a no callar.

Cierra con: Giro final: la mansión nueva nunca fue un regalo, fue la prueba para ver si Piña pedía ayuda.
